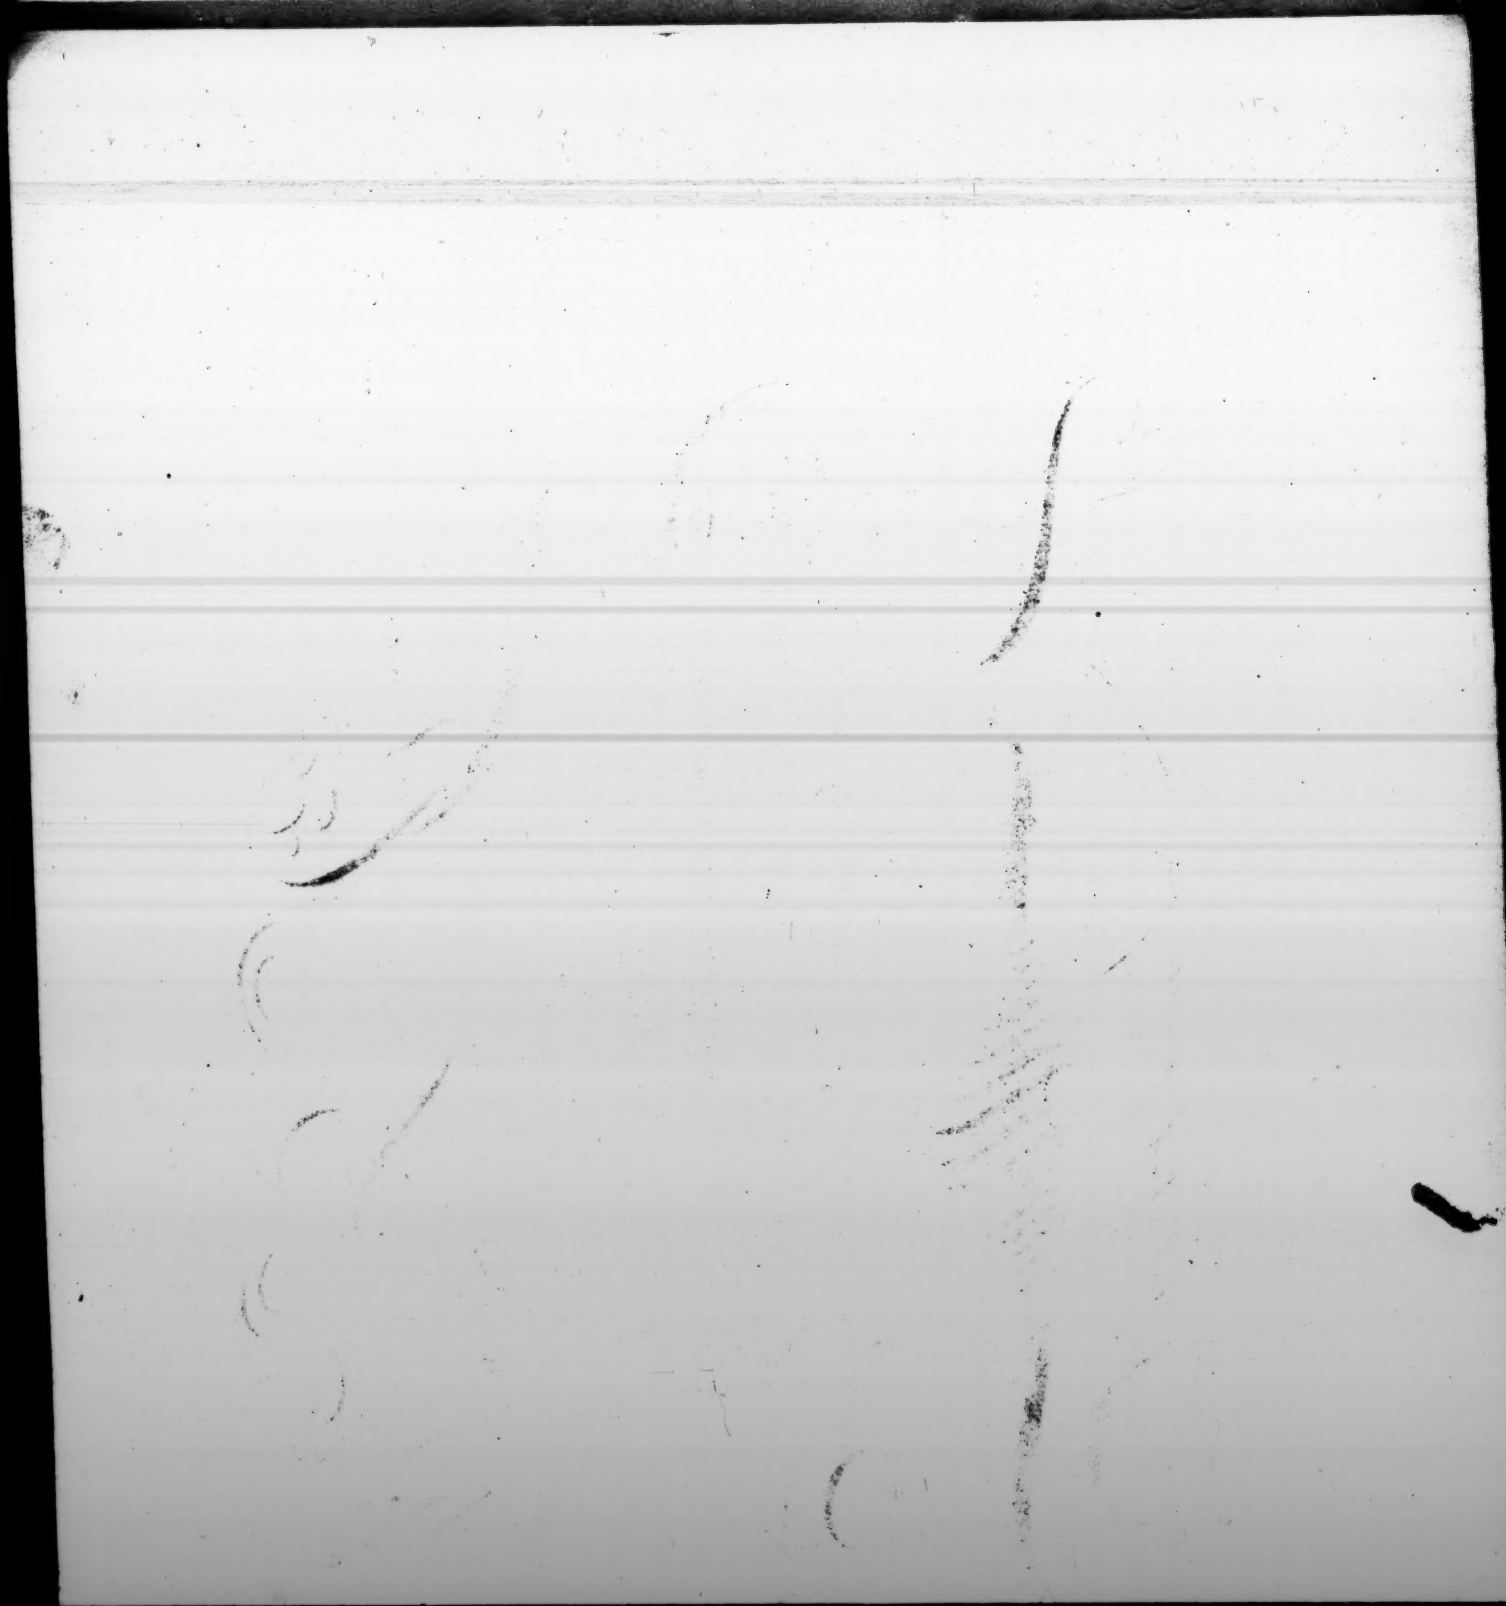
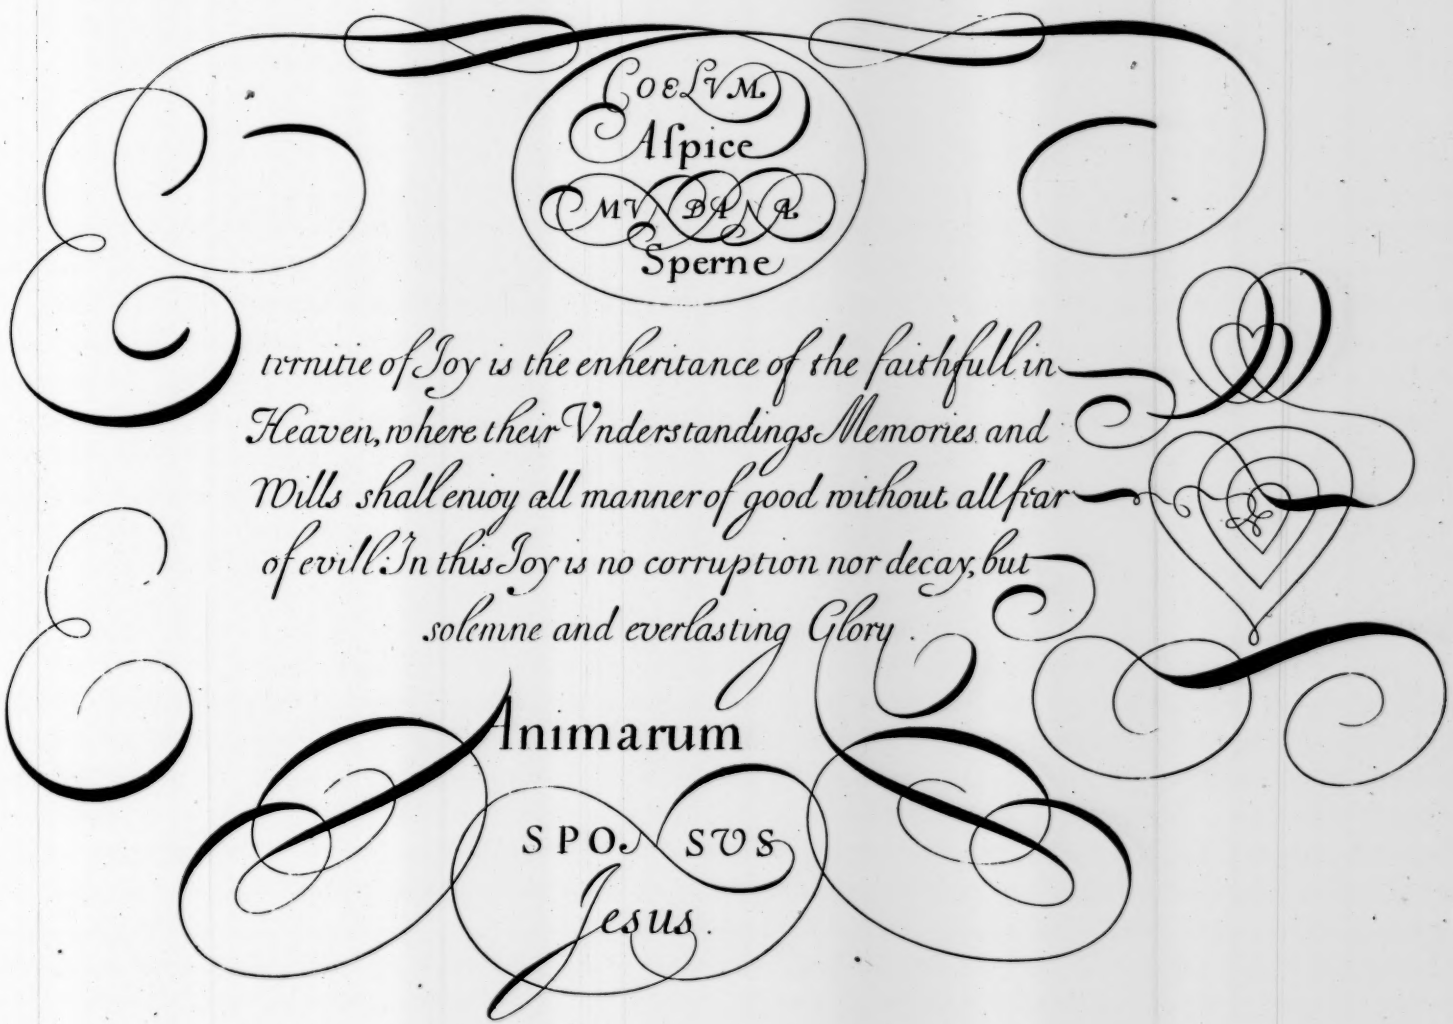
Whereas Our Trusty and Well-beloved Subject* RICHARD DANIEL, Gent. after long and expensive pains imployed in the Art of Writing, hath with much success and good advantage to the Publick, framed and invented several Essayes and Copies of that Art, beautified and adorned with divers Figures and Representations of Animals, drawn with singular dexterity and address, which he hath finished and made publick under the Title of A Compendium of the usual Hands of England, Netherlands, France, Spain, &c. And whereas it would prove an evident damage and injustice to him, if after so many years Pains and Costs imployed to ripen himself in the said Art, any other person should be admitted to share the fruits with him by Copying of or Reprinting that his book, or any part thereof, Know ye that for the just encouragement of so ingenious and laudable an Invention We are graciously pleased, and accordingly We do hereby strictly prohibit and forbid all Our Subjects to reprint in any Our Kingdoms or Dominions the said Book, or any part thereof, as it is now published by the said RICHARD DANIEL, or otherwise however counterfeited and disguised by any Alterations, for and within the space of Fourteen years now next to come, excepting onely the said RICHARD DANIEL, his Executors and Assigns, or such as he or they shall appoint. As also that none of Our Subjects import, vend or put to sale any of the Copies or Exemplaries of the said Book within any of Our Kingdoms and Dominions, (if it shall happen that the said Book, or any part thereof, be reprinted in any Part beyond the Seas, as it now stands perfected by the said DANIEL, or howsoever disguised with any Alterations) upon pain of Our high Displeasure, and Confiscation of all such Books so imported as aforesaid, the one Moiety to be paid into the Receipt of Our Exchequer, the other to the said DANIEL, *his Executors and Assigns, together with such further penalties to be inflicted on the said Offendors as shall be found agreeable to the Laws of this Our Realm, whereof We will that all Our Subjects whom it may concern take due notice. There is an Eternitie of Joy and of Woe As for Eternitie of woe O wo that never shall end The worme shall not dy The are as many more to come, and when these are gone, The woes are as far from the last as they were at ỹ first.

Eheu! Eternitas!





ternitie of Joy is the enheritance of the faithfull in Heaven, where their Vnderstandings Memories and Wills shall enioy all manner of good without all fear of evill. In this Joy is no corruption nor decay, but solemne and everlasting Glory.

Heavy most sad and heavy thoughts are the effects of Eternitie in Hell. When the damned shall consider their doom, Gods ye cursed into everlasting Fire. And they shall cast their deep thoughts on Time past, and remember that many of them lived in the light of the Gospell and had many offers of salvation.

Many Calls have many of the now damned had, whilest they lived in the world. Gods Spirit often cryed behind them, This is the way walke therein: But Alas they preferred their Lusts, and neglected these offers with an horrible vngratitude. And now they ly drowned in that lake of Fire and Brimstone, which they so easily might have escaped.

Wee have need of faithfull Friends or Carefull

O Grace is supernatural let the savour of thy ointments which every breath is love be ever in my nostrils dear Jesus

Sweet Saviour

Give me the new wine of the kingdom that I may forget the base love of this world and by an holie excesse be transported into heavenly Love.

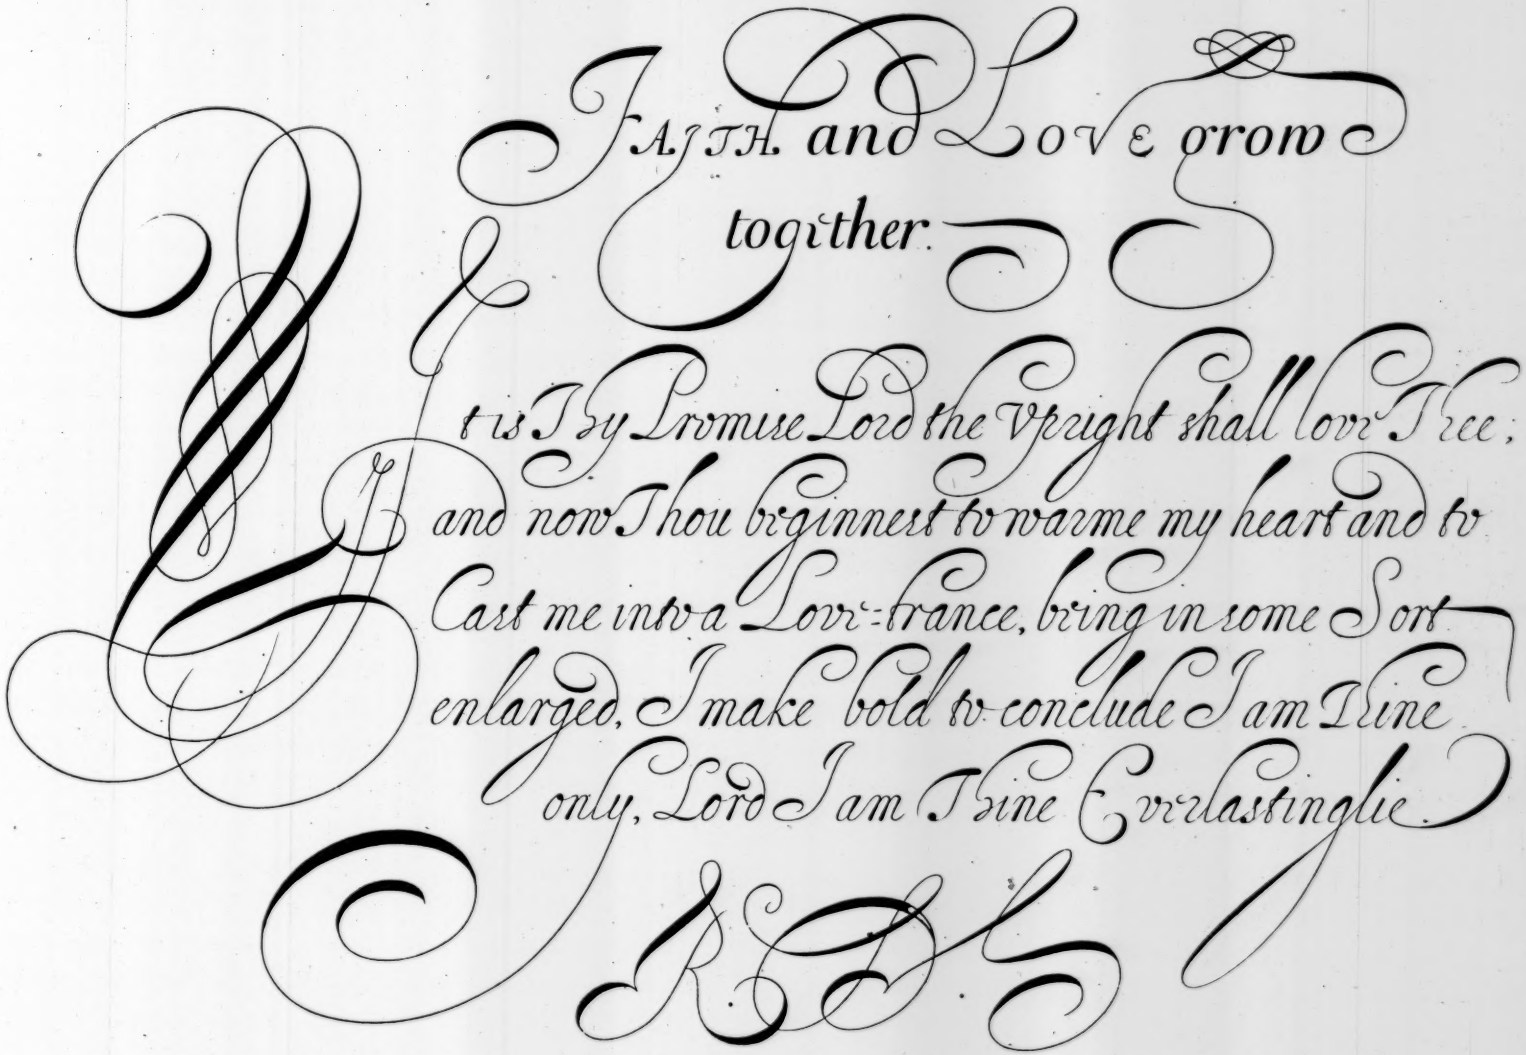
O

Faith and Love grow together.



To Loose For Christ is Gaine

Now can I adventure or loose any thing for Christ, and shall I not receive it with infinite advantage in his blessed Self?

My broken Spirit doth languish in a thirsty love, panting and gasping after free my Jesus. O lett me tast how gratious Thou art, by some reall experiments in my owne heart.

RAVISH ME WITH divine Love

My soul dost thou not strive thy self to cast into a longing mood for thy Jesus and can any thing satisfy thy importunate longing but his dear self. Thou art my Lord, my love, my life, now find thou sweet pangs of love grow upon a suddain.
I am even sick of love

DEO BENEDICAMUS

Return now o my Soul unto thy rest, For the Lord hath been beneficiall unto thee: And seeing He hath thus discovered His will to take thee for his Spouse,

How holy to Marry so Impure a wretch as Thee!
Or should this milde fire into a flame of Love! how shouldst thou Pryze and praise Him and admire thou Couldst endure to be without Christ so long!

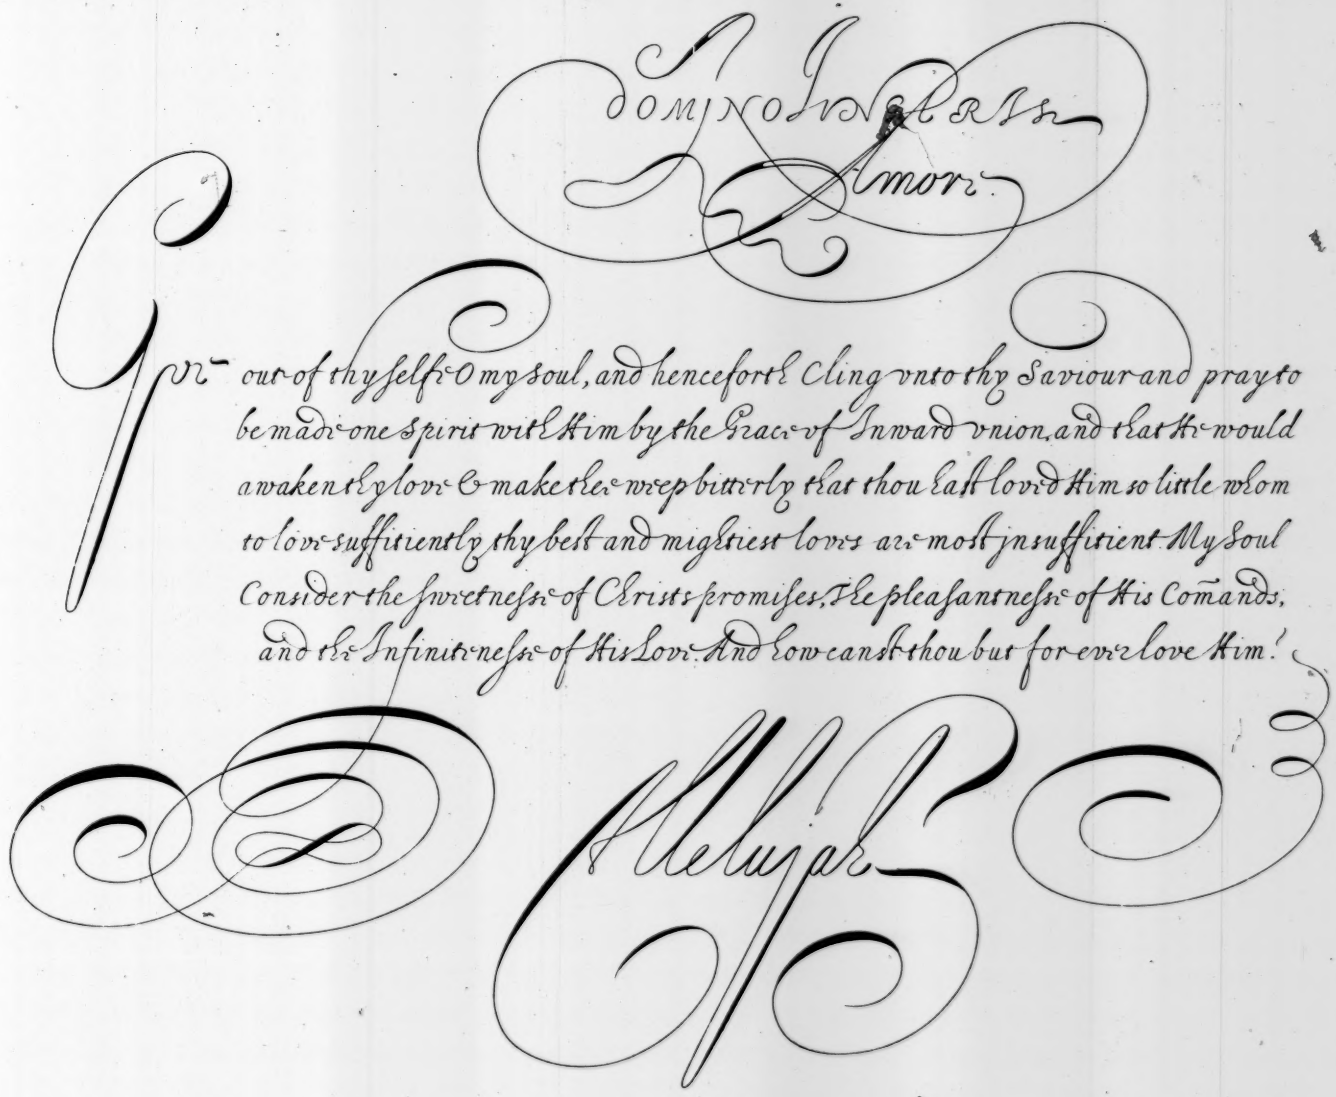
There is NO CHANGE
In my God
Dear Jesu Smile vpon me from Kraven Answer me with some assured whisspers of the Spirit of Adoption. Kisse me with the kisses of thy Mouth, for Thy Love is better then Wine
Bastin My Bridegroome
And lett me bath my Soul in the delitious Intimacies of a Spirituall Comunion with Thee my God, That I may for ever adhere vnto Thee with a true and syncere Constancy.
R. Daniel.



Domine Jesu Christe
Amor.
Go out of thyself O my soul, and henceforth Cling vnto thy Saviour and pray to be made one Spirit with Him by the Grace of Inward vnion, and that He would awaken thy love & make thee weep bitterly that thou hast loved Him so little whom to love sufficiently thy best and mightiest loves are most insufficient. My Soul Consider the sweetness of Christs promises, The pleasantness of His Comands, and the Infiniteness of His Love. And how canst thou but for ever love Him!
Alleluja

Love Perfected in Heaven

Prevent my seeking by Thy seeking. Be Thou present with me in Thy Providence and Power when Thou seemest to be farr from me in the fruition of Thy Love. And when I have regayned Thee I will hold Thee more fastly, and love Thee more vehemently by Thy power assisting. And provide a Stock of Love in Summer against winter. Come Lord Jesus and be as a Roe on the mountains. My life is hid with Thee. O appear quickly that I may appear with Thee in Glory, and in the Lappines of a Consummate Mariage. Even so Come Lord Jesu Come quickly, Amen.

Hear my cry O Lord Attend vnto my prayer From the ends of ye Earth will I cry vnto Thee
When my heart is ouerwhelmed Then lead me to the Rock
That is higher then I

For Thou hast been a shelter for me & a strong Tower from the Enemy I will abide in Thy howse for ever.
and I will trust vnder the shadow of Thy wings.

From God is my Help and my Salvation is in Him. He only is my Rock & my defence I shall not be greatly moved, All my Glory is in God. Thou hast given me the heritage of those that fear Thy Name.
